PRIVACY POLICY

CPAs, like all providers of personal financial services, are now required by law to inform their clients of their policies regarding privacy of client information. CPAs have been and continue to be bound by professional standards of confidentiality that are even more stringent than those required by law. Therefore, we have always protected your right to privacy.

TYPES OF NONPUBLIC PERSONAL INFORMATION WE COLLECT

We collect nonpublic personal information about you that is either provided to us by you or obtained by us with your authorization.

PARTIES TO WHOM WE DISCLOSE INFORMATION

For current and former clients, we do not disclose any nonpublic personal information obtained in the course of our practice except as required or permitted by law. Permitted disclosures include, for instance, providing information to our employees and, in limited situations, to unrelated third parties who need to know that information to assist us in providing services to you. In all such situations, we stress the confidential nature of information being shared.

PROTECTING THE CONFIDENTIALITY AND SECURITY OF CURRENT AND FORMER CLIENTS' INFORMATION

We retain records relating to professional services that we provide so that we are better able to assist you with your professional needs and, in some cases, to comply with professional guidelines. In order to guard your nonpublic personal information, we maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with our professional standards.

Please call if you have any questions, because your privacy, our professional ethics, and the ability to provide you with quality financial services are very important to us.

Electronic Filing

Electronic Filing:

Electronic filing is the means by which your return is transmitted directly to the IRS and state tax authorities. Electronic filing is the only filing method that provides you with acknowledgment that the IRS has received your return and is processing it. If you are to receive a refund and use direct deposit with electronic filing, you will normally receive your refund in about 3 weeks.

Note that not all returns qualify for electronic filing under IRS rules.

--------------------------	--------------------------

If you qualify, would you like to file your state returns electronically?

The IRS requires the use of a 5-digit self-selected Personal Identification Number (PIN) in lieu of mailing a signature document when electronically filing.

Would you like to use a randomly generated PIN?

Yes	No

Gifts Made Outright to an Individual

NOTE: Only complete Forms 34 and/or 35 if in 2024:

- You made gifts of cash or marketable securities to an individual that exceeded $18,000; or
- You made gifts of hard-to-value assets (such as closely-held stock) to an individual of any amount; or
- You made any transfers to a trust (including paying premiums on a life insurance policy that was transferred to a life insurance trust).

You should include all gifts made to each individual during the year, including gifts for his or her birthday, holiday, anniversary, graduation, etc. In addition, include any gifts you made for educational or medical expenses. You can exclude amounts paid directly to a qualifying educational organization for tuition. You can also exclude amounts paid directly to health care providers if the expenses relate to nonelective medical expenses.

If you made any loans with an interest rate below the market rate of interest, provide details below.

If your most recent gift tax return was not prepared by us, include a copy.

For gifts other than cash, include a copy of any appraisal(s) of assets.

If no appraisal is available, describe how the value was determined.

For each gift made outright to an individual during the year, provide the following information:
